

Guide to the Oral History of BAIN, HENRY

Biographical/Historical Notes

Henry Bain was a Montgomery County political historian. He was a long-time resident of Montgomery County and attended public schools in the county. He studied economics and political science in college and public administration in graduate school.

Interview - Oral history is in the form of a talk given February 26, 1969, to the Oral History Committee of the Montgomery County League of Women Voters.

Subject

African Americans – Role of Negroes in politics
Maryland – Political History
Montgomery County (Md.) – Charter Movement
Montgomery County (Md.) – Political History
Montgomery County (Md.) – Race and Elections
Montgomery County (Md.) – Real estate development
Women – Montgomery County politics

Subject Names

Blair, Francis Preston
Blair, Montgomery
Hostetler, Alice
Jones, Spencer C.
Lee Family
Peter, George
Ritchie, Albert C.

Table of Contents/Index – See also Outline of Talk by Henry Bain for additional topics and subjects.

OUTLINE OF TALK BY HENRY BAIN

- I. Introduction
 - A. Background
 - B. Geography of Maryland
 - 1. Regions of Maryland
 - 2. Relationship between climate and existence of slaves
 - C. Political history of Maryland
 - 1. Proportion of Negroes in Republican Party after Civil War
 - 2. Effects of Negro voters in election of 1872
 - D. Early political history of Montgomery County
 - 1. Factors making Montgomery County Democratic
 - a. Race
 - b. Religion
 - 2. Structure of Republican Party after the Civil War
- II. Montgomery County political history from 1867 to 1905
 - A. Rural society
 - B. Small, limited local government
 - C. Political structure
 - 1. Dominance of Democrats
 - 2. Party primaries
 - 3. Factions in Democratic Party
 - 4. Relation to Maryland politics and factions in Democratic Party
 - D. Political leaders
 - 1. State leader-Gorman
 - 2. Spencer Jones
 - 3. George Peter
 - E. Republican Party
 - 1. Emergence of Republican patronage appointees
 - 2. Factional conflicts
- III. Montgomery County political history from 1905 to 1919
 - A. Competition to Spencer Jones
 - B. Beginning of Lee family
 - C. Campaign for State Senator in 1905 and end of Jones' prominence
 - D. Society - beginning of suburbanization
 - E. Continued rural government
 - F. Political organization
 - 1. Legislation of Progressive era
 - 2. Emergence of Blair Lee as Progressive
 - 3. Lee's defeat for Governor
 - 4. Beginning of two factions in Democratic Party

- IV. Montgomery County political history from 1919 to 1948
 - A. Beginnings of real estate development
 - B. Emergence of Brooke Lee as political force
 - C. Union of Democratic Party statewide and locally
 - D. Change to a suburban government
 - 1. Build up of school system
 - 2. Suburban district tax
 - 3. Establishment of Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission and Park and Planning Commission
 - E. Growing suburban population and development
 - F. Political organization under Lee
 - 1. Patronage appointments
 - 2. County purchasing
 - G. Weakness of Republican Party and dominance of Democrats
 - H. Society - upper income, educated
 - I. Democratic troubles in 1934
 - 1. Brooke Lee's financial problems
 - 2. Ritchie's loss to Nice
 - 3. Election of fusion ticket locally
 - J. Return to Democratic control
 - K. Charter movement
 - 1. Civic Federation actions
 - 2. Brookings Institution study
 - 3. Charter campaigns
 - a. Defeat of Lee for Congress in 1942 and connection with charter
 - b. Election of Republicans to county offices
 - c. Defeat of charter in 1944 - Lee opposition
 - d. Victory in 1948 - Lee support
 - L. Society - still upper income
 - M. Republican Party organization
 - N. Changes in local government made by Lee
 - O. Lee's defeat by his own organization in 1946 - dispute over charter
 - P. Election of reformers ticket for first County Council
 - Q. Emergence of national liberal Democrats
 - R. Establishment of good county government
 - S. Changes in society
 - 1. Increases in population
 - 2. Lower and middle income groups
 - T. Miscellaneous comments
 - 1. Relation of Lee and Tydings
 - 2. Division of Democrats
 - 3. Women in Montgomery County politics
 - 4. Emergence of Blair Lee