

Guide to the Oral History of HOVSEPIAN, DICKRAN Y. (1914 -2003)

Biographical/Historical Notes

Dickran Y. Hovsepian was the Mayor of Rockville, Maryland and a Montgomery County Council Member. He was born in 1914 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II and later worked for the Army Corps of Engineers in Washington, D.C. Shortly after moving to Montgomery County, Hovsepian and his wife became active in the Twinbrook Citizens Association. In 1954, Hovsepian was elected Mayor of the City of Rockville; he served in this position until 1958. He retired from the Federal government in 1969 and was elected to the Montgomery County Council and was a Council Member from 1970 to 1978.

Interview - Interviewed June 17, 1988 and June 27, 1988 for MCA.

Subject

Citizens for a Better Montgomery County
Diggs' Council
Fire and Rescue Services
Metro System
Montgomery County (Md.) – Citizens Planning Association
Montgomery County (Md.) – County Council
Montgomery County (Md.) – County Executive
Montgomery County (Md.) – Housing Authority
Montgomery County (Md.) – Operations and human resources
Montgomery County (Md.) – Zoning
Rockville (Md.) – Office of the Mayor
Rockville (Md.) – Politics and Government
Twinbrook Citizens Association

Subject Names

Garrott, Ida Mae

Table of Contents/Index– Not available. Archive file contains a summary of the interviews but no transcripts.