

Guide to the Oral History of WALKER, HELEN CLAXTON (1896-1980)

Biographical/Historical Notes

Helen Claxton Walker was an educator and civic leader in Montgomery County. She was born in 1896 in Greensboro, North Carolina and came to the Washington, D.C. area in about 1910. She attended the University of North Carolina and George Washington University. As a resident of Montgomery County, she was President of the Board of Education and the Chevy Chase Elementary PTA. She was served on the Maryland State Board of Education, was a founding trustee of Montgomery Junior College, and a member of the Chevy Chase Club.

Interview – Interviewed October 21, 1971 by Blossom Holland for MBL.

Subject

Chevy Chase – Parent-Teacher Association
Montgomery County (Md.) – Board of Education
Montgomery County Society for Crippled Children and Adults

Subject Names

Broome, Edwin W.

Table of Contents/Index – See also Outline of Oral History Interview with Helen Claxton Walker for additional subjects and topics.

Outline of Oral History Interview with

HELEN CLAXTON WALKER

- I. Service on Board of Education of Montgomery County
 - A. Organization of schools
 - B. Appointment to Board of Education
 - C. Other members of Board of Education
 - D. Preference for appointed school boards
 - E. Critical issues faced by Board during war and post-war years
 - F. Assessment of Dr. Broome's influence on education
 1. Contributions to education
 2. Philosophy of education
 3. Innovations begun
 - a. School lunch program
 - b. In-school nurses
 - c. Others
- II. Other civic activities
 - A. Norwood Recreation Association
 - B. Mental Hygiene Society
 - C. Easter Seal Society
 - D. B-CC Educational Foundation
- III. Comments on Montgomery Community College and education in general
- IV. Service on Maryland State Board of Education
 - A. Appointment
 - B. Other members of Board
 - C. Assessment of Dr. Pullen
 1. Personal characteristics
 2. Contributions to education
- V. Assessment of career