

Guide to the Oral History of ZEA, MARGARET E. (1898-)

Biographical/Historical Notes

Margaret E. Zea was a community volunteer. She was born in 1898 in Washington, D.C. and was raised in Kensington, Maryland. Zea attended Central High School and Milton Business College. Zea's professional experience included working for the Federal Trade Commission and the Forestry Service. She was also a member of the Takoma Park Women's Club, Interview – Interviewed May 22, 1976 by Luella Eldridge for MCHS.

Subject

B&O Railroad
Seventh-Day Adventist Church
Takoma Park (Md.) – History
Takoma Park Women's Club

Subject Names

Warner, Brainard H.

Table of Contents/Index – See also Interview Index for additional subjects and topics.

I N D E X

	Page
Azeleas	7-8
Burke, Admiral Arleigh	24
Cady-Lee Mansion	18
Central High School	26
Crandall, Frank	34-35
Depression	29-30
Fire, 1893	4
Gilbert, Benjamin F.	1, 19
Godfrey, Arthur	30
Hayes, Helen	30, 33
Hermann, Philip	27
Knickerbocker Theater	34-35
Longworth, Alice Roosevelt	26
Milton Business School	28
Newspaper, Takoma Park	5
Poli Players	32
Reuter, Fritz	26
Seventh Day Adventists	5-6
Shipwreck, Mr. Zea's	24
Sligo Creek Bridges	4
Sligo Gristmill	8
Sligo Hotel	8-9
Smith, Kate	30
Springs, Takoma Park	2-3
Streetcars	20-21
Takoma Park, Naming of	1, 19
Takoma Park Presbyterian Church	2
Takoma Park Schools	2
Takoma Park Seventh-fifth Anniversary	25
Takoma Park Summer Resort	3
Suffragettes	16-17
Telephone	4, 15
Terra Cotta Railroad Wreck	13-15
Warner, Brainerd	2, 19-20
Wars	22
Water Tower	2
Wildwood Resort	9
Wiswell, Alvah	8
Willard Hotel	32-33
Woman's Club	17
Youngblood's Store	20
Zea, Margaret, Beautician	23
Zea, Margaret, Home	7, 9-13
Zea, Margaret, Marriage	15