

Celebrate Black History Month

African American students in Poolesville ca. 1909; image from Montgomery History's Special Collections

February 4 | 1:00 p.m.

Yarrow Mamout and His Family

Presented by Jim Johnston
Little Falls Public Library

February 15 | 2:00 p.m.

*Thurgood Marshall: A Trailblazing Civil Rights Victory
in Montgomery County*

Presented by Ralph Buglass
White Oak Library

February 5 | 5:30 p.m.

Still Standing: One- and Two-Room Schoolhouses in Montgomery County and the Stories They Tell About the Early Days of Public Education

Presented by Ralph Buglass
Silver Spring Branch Library

February 18 | 12:00 p.m.

*Scotland Rediscovered: Behind the Scenes of the Scotland
Photo Gallery Online Exhibit (Tuesday Talk Event)*

Presented by Sarah Hedlund
Beall-Dawson House

February 8 | 2:00 p.m.

River Road, Bethesda: A Short History of Black and White

Presented by Paige Whitley
Chevy Chase Library

February 19 | 10:30 a.m.

*Thurgood Marshall: A Trailblazing Civil Rights Victory
in Montgomery County*

Presented by Ralph Buglass
Rockville Senior Center

February 13 | 1:30 p.m.

Yarrow Mamout and His Family

Presented by Jim Johnston
Iona Wellness & Arts Center

February 26 | 7:30 p.m.

Railroad Ties: A Film by Ancestry.com
Presented by the Montgomery County
Genealogical Society
Rockville Senior Center

These programs brought to you by Montgomery History For more information about African American history in Montgomery County and resources for research, visit MontgomeryHistory.org.

