- 2) Any published reproduction will be used in its entirety, unless identified as a "detail." Superimposing upon the image, cropping, bleeding, or manipulation of any kind is not acceptable without specific permission.
- 3) Montgomery History does not relinquish any right or title to this material by granting permission for use.
- 4) Permission is granted only to the organization/institution/publication/individual listed on this application and may not be transferred to another organization, institution, publication, or individual without the expressed written permission of Montgomery History.
- 5) Items may not be used for promotional, commercial, or any other use which implies sponsorship or endorsement by Montgomery History without written permission.

The completion of this form does not imply clearance of any copyright restrictions other than those vested with Montgomery History. It is the responsibility of the party using the photographs to ascertain and clear copyright restrictions on materials provided from the Society's collection. (See Warning of Copyright Restrictions below.)

WARNING OF COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS The Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17 United States Code) governs the making of photocopies of other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.
